Parent / Carer Privacy Notice

Policy Statement

During your child's time with us, we will gather and use information relating to you. Information that we hold in relation to individuals is known as their "personal data". This will include data that we obtain from you directly and data about you that we obtain from other people and organisations. We might also need to continue to hold your personal data for a period of time after your child has left the school/Trust. Anything that we do with an individual's personal data is known as "processing".

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about you, why we process that data, who we share this information with, and your rights in relation to your personal data processed by us.

What information do we process in relation to you?

We will collect, hold, share and otherwise use the following information about you:

- personal information (such as name and title [Mr, Mrs, Ms etc.], address, home and mobile numbers, occupation and work address/phone number, personal email address, emergency contact details, national insurance number and details of qualifying benefits for free schools meal checks, asylum support number), family doctor
- financial details where needed (such as bank account for refunds)
- CCTV footage and images obtained when you attend the school site
- your relationship to your child, including any Court orders that may be in place
- External support services access by you
- Additional information regarding your child for pre-term births (before 37 weeks)

We will also use special categories of data such as gender, date of birth, languages spoken at home, religious or similar beliefs. These types of personal data are subject to additional requirements.

Where do we get your personal data from?

We will obtain an amount of your personal data from you, by way of information gathering exercises at appropriate times such as when your child joins the school/Trust, and when you attend the school site and are captured by our CCTV system.

We may also obtain information about you from other sources. This might include information from the local authorities or other professionals or bodies, including a Court, which might raise concerns in relation to your child.

Why do we use your personal data?

We will process your personal data for the following reasons:

1. Where we are required by law, including:

- To provide reports and other information required by law in relation to the performance of your child
- To raise or address any concerns about safeguarding
- To the Government agencies including the police
- To obtain relevant funding for the school
- To provide or obtain additional services including advice and/or support for your family

2. Where the law otherwise allows us to process the personal data as part of our functions as a Trust/school, or we are carrying out a task in the public interest, including:

- To confirm your identity
- To communicate matters relating to the school/Trust to you
- To safeguard you, our pupils and other individuals
- To enable payments to be made by you to the school/Trust
- To ensure the safety of individuals on the school site
- To aid in the prevention and detection of crime on the school site

3. Where we otherwise have your consent

Whilst the majority of processing of personal data we hold about you will not require your consent, we will inform you if your consent is required and seek that consent before any processing takes place.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may process special category personal data in relation to you for the following reasons:

1. Where the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, including for purposes of equality of opportunity and treatment, where this is in accordance with our Data Protection Policy.
2. Where the processing is necessary in order to ensure your health and safety on the Trust/School site, including making reasonable adjustments for any disabilities you may have.

Your rights in relation to your personal data held by us

You have the right to request access to personal data that we hold about you, subject to a number of exceptions. To make a request for access to your personal data, you should contact:

The school's Head of School who is the Data Controller for each school.

Please also refer to our Data Protection Policy for further details on making requests for access to your personal data.

You also have the right, in certain circumstances, to:

- Object to the processing of your personal data
- Have inaccurate or incomplete personal data about you rectified
- Restrict processing of your personal data
- Object to the making of decisions about you taken by automated means
- Have your data transferred to another organisation
- Claim compensation for damage caused by a breach of your data protection rights

If you want to exercise any of these rights then you should contact the Head of School. The law does not oblige the Trust/School to comply with all requests. If the Trust/School does not intend to comply with the request then you will be notified of the reasons why in writing.

Concerns

If you have any concerns about how we are using your personal data then we ask that you contact our Data Protection Officer in the first instance. However an individual can contact the Information Commissioner's Office should you consider this to be necessary, at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>.
