Pupil Privacy Notice

Why are we providing this information to you?

The Trust needs to use information about you. We do this for a number of reasons. This form tells you what information we use about you and why we use it. It is very important that information about you is kept safe. We explain below how we keep your information safe.

If you want to know anything about what we do with information about you then please ask your teacher, or speak to your parents/guardians and ask them to contact the school your child attends. We want you to feel free to raise any questions at all.

We also have a person called the Data Controller for each school. This is the Head of School and they can answer any questions you have about what the school/Trust does with your information. If you or your parents/guardians want to contact them, then you can do so by arranging this with the front office.

Policy Statement

During your time with us, we will use information that we gather in relation to you for various purposes. Information that we hold in relation to you is known as “personal data”. This will include data that we obtain from you directly and data about you which we obtain from other people and organisations. We might also need to continue to hold your personal data for a period of time after you have left the school/Trust. Anything that we do with your personal data is known as “processing”.

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about you, why we process that data, who we share this information with, and your rights in relation to your personal data processed by us.

What information do we use about you?

- To make sure that we are able to address and support any educational, health or social needs you may have
- To make sure everyone is treated fairly and equally
- To keep you and everyone at the schools safe and secure
- To deal with emergencies involving you
- To celebrate your achievements
- To provide reports and additional information to your parents/carers

Some of these things we have to do by law. Other things we do because we need to so that we can run the schools/Trust.

Sometimes we need permission to use your information. This includes taking pictures or videos of you to be used on our website or in the newspaper. Before we do these things we will ask you or if necessary your parent/carer for permission.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may need to use the information about you which is special (mentioned above) where there is a specific interest to do so for example health and social care purposes or to provide you with equal opportunities and treatment. We will also use this information where you have given us permission to do so.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your vital interests and where you are unable to provide your consent.

How long will we hold information in relation to our pupils?

We will hold information relating to you only for as long as necessary. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information. Where you change school we will usually pass your information to your new school.

Who will we share pupil information with?

We may give information about you with:

- Other schools or educational institutions you may attend or require support from Local Authorities, to assist them in the exercise of their responsibilities in relation to education and training, youth support and safeguarding purposes
- The Department for Education [and/ or ESFA] as required by the law

Keeping this information safe

It is very important that only people who need to use your information can see it. The schools and Trust keep your information safe by undertaking the following actions:

- We will keep personal information about you while you are a pupil at any of our schools. We may also keep it after you have left the school, where we are required to by law.
- We have a record retention schedule/records management policy which sets out how long we must keep information about pupils. The Trust has adopted the Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools. A copy can be found on the GDPR page on the Trust website or viewed here: <https://irms.site-ym.com/page/SchoolsToolkit>.

Your rights in relation to your information

You can ask to see the information we hold about you. If you wish to do this you should speak to your Head of School.

You also have the right to:

- Object to what we are doing with your information
- Have inaccurate or incomplete information about you amended
- Ask us to stop doing certain things with your information in some cases
- Ask that decisions about you are not made using automatic systems
- Claim against the school/Trust in certain circumstances where you have suffered as a result of the school/Trust breaching your data protection rights

If you feel it necessary to do any of the above, you can speak with your Head of School. The school/Trust does not have to meet all of your requests and we will let you know where we are unable to do so.

Concerns

If you are concerned about how we are using your personal data then you can speak with your Head of School, or if necessary you or your parent/ carer can contact the Data Protection Officer (DPO):

- Judicium Consulting Limited Address: 72 Cannon Street, London, EC4N 6AE Email: dataservices@judicium.com Web: www.judiciumeducation.co.uk Telephone: 0203 326 9174 Lead Contact: Craig Stilwell or the Information Commissioner's Office who could also help at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>. This consent will otherwise continue until your position with the Woodland Academy Trust comes to an end.
